DEMOCRATS SEE PLENTY OF COIN IN FALL FIGHT

NO WORRY ABOUT A FULL "BARREL" AS WESTERN CAMPAIGN OPENS

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Western chairman Thomas J. Walsh took over position yesterday of an entire floor of the Larson building, called his headquarters flag to full mast and declared the western campaign for Wilson formally opened.

National Chairman Vance Merriam's announcement will be here to-morrow for an important conference on ways and means. The research and determining heads are to be assigned to their duties and the committee who are expected to receive the cash will start upon their major Plenty of Coin in Sight.

The general impression of western politicians seems to be that there is plenty of money to pay the cost of a complete campaign. In addition to the popular Fund Drive, being raised by Treasurer William A. Morris, experts point out that there are demands in nearly all of the good field offices and in many of the state places, a sum on that did not obtain in 1912.

"We ought to have all the money that we can spend legitimately," a leading Democrat said.

How a Nebraskan Sees It.

Chairman Walsh was greatly cheered by a visit from Arthur Miller, Democratic national committeeman from Nebraska, who spoke thus as to conditions in Mr. Bryan's state:

"There has never been any doubt in my mind about Nebraska going Democratic this year and the fact that it surely will is made certain by a telegram I just received which says that Judge Sutton, Republican candidate for governor out there, has told the railroad plank of the Republican national platform.

"By doing this he debars Victor Rosewater, former chairman of the Republican national committee and learned of the Nebraska standpatters. We vote for everything in Nebraska this fall from president right down to sensible and the people of Nebraska after watching Bryan on this trip through the west have decided he is not presidential timber."

This crew was one of the most expert in this particular work in the employ of the traction company. They all lived at Edmond and had been working together for years. They were counted the most careful and trustworthy crew the road had ever employed.

The officers of the company were quickly and numerously at the scene of the accident and did all that could be done. The county officials and the road officials are unable to fix the cause of the explosion, and as the only men who could tell anything about conditions are forever wedded to death, the real cause has never been known.

penalty for overtime," says the letter, "would of course destroy the entire foundation of the plan set forth by the employees and make the whole program still one of increased pay among them, as there would be no penalty for working an employee as to sixteen hours out of the twenty-four."

"Basic Day Misnomer"

"If the basic eight-hour day is as claimed by the railroads, merely a means of changing the rate of pay per hour without limitation of hours of labor, then obviously the basic eight-hour day has no relation to the eight-hour day in industry founded on the basis of eight hours of work, eight hours of sleep and eight hours of leisure and recreation."

Arbitration Desired

"The position is that the rails ought to be investigated and that if the demands are just, they ought to be granted immediately upon the establishment of the facts upon their merits and not because either party is so powerful that it can dictate its terms to the public. We feel there is no hope whatever of a permanent settlement of this question short of the method proposed, arbitration, and we again appeal to you to use your power and influence to that end at this time."

Executive of several roads gave out statements explaining the position the railroads have taken in the fight with the men.

Dickenson Talks.

Jacob M. Dickenson, former secretary of war and at present receiver of the Rock Island, said the issue plainly was that the railroad employers were attempting to enforce a demand for higher pay by threatening the general welfare of all the other people."

"Speaking for myself alone," said a statement by E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe, "I do not hesitate to say that if the brotherhoods would indicate they are willing to work eight hours for a day's pay this controversy could be settled in twenty minutes. The brotherhood leaders said the public is not in tune with

RETURN FROM 2,700 MILE AUTOMOBILE TRIP

H. F. Riedel and family have returned from a 2,700 mile automobile trip through the states of Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and Missouri, during which trip they saw some of the best farming land in the United States.

Mr. Riedel made it a point to investigate as to the prices of farm land and the incomes on such investments and was told that Oklahoma farms are a better buy than most of the northern land, overlooking the value of the land.

The Riedels were told in how well and make over a thousand crop a year this year, and Missouri and Nebraska about a half crop and greater Kansas will not produce. To make up for lack of corn an average of 100 and 150 bushels more the southern states are much more suitable for the Riedels.

"Yes, Sonny, Postum is good and much better for you than coffee—you'll know why, sometime. In fact, children should never drink coffee or tea—and most grown-ups would be better off without either."
